Orienteering's BIG night out

A few years ago we celebrated like this:

But we can do better than that! Let's make a big effort to honour all the Award winners by pretending we have a long red carpet, cameras and lights aplenty and then we all strut our stuff. Drag your finery out the back of the wardrobe and let's party! Nothing will be OTT or too outrageous!

NB Public health guidelines and standards of decency should still be observed

Now the Brownlows have shown us all how to do things in real style (sort of):

Get your gear on and join in celebrating a COVID free year.
